Kenſington, October 28.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the Town of Nottingham, having been tranſmitted by Henry Butler, Eſq; Mayor, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, Recorder of the ſaid Town, has been by him preſented to the King: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the Town of Nottingham.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the Town of Nottingham, in Common Council aſſembled, moſt humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the ſignal Succeſs with which it hath pleaſed the Almighty to favour your Arms and Councils.

We reflect, with inexpreſſible Satisfaction, on the Joy which muſt fill your Royal Breaſt, while you behold the gloomy Apprehenſions of your Subjects ſo ſoon diſſipated; your Dominions in Germany freed from the Ravages of an inſolent Enemy; the Laurels gained by your Forces under Prince Ferdinand of Brunſwick; and your Great Ally and Relation triumphing over the boaſted and ſavage Strength of Ruſſia; a Foundation laid for extending the Commerce of your Subjects both in Africa and America; and an ineſtimable Jewel added to your Crown by the taking of Cape Breton.

The Zeal and ſteady Reſolution with which your Majeſty's Orders have been executed at Saint Malo and Cherburg, by the Succeſſor of our late moſt worthy Repreſentative, afford us great Conſolation, while we are lamenting the Loſs of a Life ſo valuable and ſo univerſally regretted.

The many Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's moſt gracious Government, and the long and happy Experience we have had of your paternal Care and Goodneſs, inſpire us with the moſt ardent Wiſhes and earneſt Prayers for the Continuance of your invaluable Life; and that your Great Name, and that of the King of Pruſſia, may deſcend to Poſterity, not only as the joint Patrons and Aſſerters of the Rights of Mankind, both Civil and Religious, but as the glorious Inſtruments, appointed by Divine Providence, to detect and defeat the moſt ſecret and moſt formidable Confederacy that ever threatned the Liberties of Europe.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall in the Town of Nottingham, the Eighteenth Day of October, One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Fifty Eight.

The

[Price Three-Pence.]

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Corporation, and Town of Taunton, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Earl of Egremont: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Corporation, and Town of Taunton.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Corporation, and Town of Taunton, beg Leave to join with our Fellow Subjects, in preſenting to your Majeſty our joyful Congratulations on the Succeſs with which it has pleaſed Almighty God to bleſs your Majeſty's Arms, for vindicating the Rights of your Kingdoms, and reducing to Reaſon the Diſturbers of Europe.

The Pleaſure we receive from the Reduction of Cape Breton, and the important Fortreſs of Louiſbourg, and from the taking and deſtroying ſo many of the Enemies Ships of War, is heightned by their being effected with ſo ſmall a Loſs, and in a Manner which does Honour to the Conduct and Bravery of your Majeſty's Forces, and by our Hopes that they will open the Way to ſuch further Conqueſts, as may ſoon produce a Peace, honourable to your Majeſty, and by which the Rights of your Kingdoms, the Proteſtant Intereſt, and the Liberties of Europe, will be effectually ſecured.

May the Divine Providence add this to the Glories and Bleſſings of your Majeſty's Reign, and may you long rule over a loyal, united and happy People.

Given under our Common Seal this 14th Day of October, 1758.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council, of the Corporation of Totnes, having been tranſmitted by B. Triſt, Eſq; their Recorder, to the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Pitt, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majeſty's moſt dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the Corporation of Totnes, in Chamber aſſembled, humbly beg Leave, with Hearts full of Joy and Gratitude for your paternal Care of all your Subjects, to congratulate your Majeſty on the repeated Victories, obtained by your Majeſty's Arms.

If Succeſs is the Proof of the Favour of Providence, how happy is this Nation, in being ſo clearly convinced, that your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Councils are bleſſed by the great Diſpoſer of War and Peace.

The antient Enemies of the Britiſh Name, have ſeen, in the Compaſs of one Year, their darling Schemes of Univerſal Monarchy diſappointed, their boaſted Forces diſpirited, and defeated, in every Quarter of the World, and themſelves, who arrogated to be the Arbiters of Europe, terrified even on their own Coaſts; and from hence we hope will have cauſe to learn, that this Free People, guided and governed by a King, whom they Love and Honour, will never ſuffer their Rights to be invaded, either by Force or Treachery, without exerting their whole Power in their Defence or Recovery.

America will be a laſting Witneſs of this Truth; and we, your Majeſty's happy People, depend upon your Royal Wiſdom, to guide the Succeſs of War to it's proper End,—an honourable and laſting Peace.

That Heaven may ſtill grant it's Protection to your Majeſty, and bleſs us with a long Continuance of your Reign over us, and that your Royal Deſcendants may, following the great Example ſet by your Majeſty, to the lateſt Ages, reign glorious Princes in the Hearts of a Free and Faithful People, is our ardent Prayer.

Given under the Seal of the Corporation, the Twentieth Day of October, 1758.
